I hereby acknowledge that any damages or liability incurred by the party or on behalf of the party are the sole responsibility of the party coordinators.

Furthermore, I have read and understand clause 4.G of the Contract that FenCon has signed with the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Addison and will abide by its provisions.

(4.G) Alcoholic Beverages Services: It is the policy of the Hotel to serve alcohol in a responsible manner. For the concern for your guests' well being, the Hotel reserves the right to refuse alcoholic beverages service to anyone, who appears to be less than the age of 21 or in the sole opinion of the Hotel Management, appears intoxicated. Please note that all alcoholic beverages served on the Hotel premises must be provided by the hotel and dispensed by our staff.

Guests may bring alcoholic beverages into their guestrooms for their personal consumption, but may not carry alcoholic beverages into public areas of the hotel including guestroom corridors. It is the Group's responsibility to inform their guests that should they choose to serve alcoholic beverages to anyone else they do so at their own risk and will be liable for knowing and obeying Texas laws on the serving of alcoholic beverages and the standards set by Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission. The hotel accepts no responsibility for any incidents arising from such service.

Just to be clear, the legal drinking age in Texas is 21. If you serve alcohol in your parties, it cannot be taken from the room. Any damages or disruptive behavior will be the responsibility and liability of the group/person(s) throwing the party, and FenCon and the hotel accept no responsibility or liability for such incidents.
