FenCon is a fan-run literary-focused general interest science fiction convention featuring a dedicated filk track, a costuming track, demos, gaming, an art show and auction, panel discussions, science programming, our annual short story contest, open filking, the legendary FenCon Cabaret, a writer's workshop, over 100 program participants, and much more!

Short Story Contest

FenCon and the Dallas Future Society are proud to announce the return of the FenCon Short Story Contest for a sixth consecutive year. We're once again looking for a science fiction or fantasy story on any topic. Final judging will be conducted by top industry professionals and the winner will be published in the FenCon VII Program Book. Complete entry details and contest rules can be found on our website. For more information, go to <http://www.fencon.org/story.html>

Writers' Workshop featuring Ginjer Buchanan

We try to mix things up each year with our Writers' Workshop and this year is no exception. For FenCon VII we are focusing on novel proposals. This year's instructor, Ginjer Buchanan, is the Editor-in-Chief for Ace/Roc Books and this intense workshop is your chance to learn from one of the top professionals in publishing. There is a $30.00 fee to participate in the workshop. For more information, go to <http://www.fencon.org/workshop.html>

Art Show and Auction

Our art show panels and tables will be filled with original paintings, prints, sculptures, jewelry, and other forms of artwork. We're proud to display the work of artists from across north Texas and around the United States. If you're interested in participating as an artist, contact art show director Jimmy Simpson at artshow@fencon.org to check on space availability. Be sure to stop by the art show then attend our art auction on Saturday night to find that perfect piece for yourself or a friend. For more information, go to <http://www.fencon.org/artshow.html>

Children's Programming

New for 2010! FenCon is greatly expanding programming for the younger fans. We will have special demonstrations, workshops, readings and program items designed just for kids. All of this is on top of our already family-friendly programming that you have come to know and love for the past 7 years.

To get your membership to FenCon VII please go online to www.fencon.org or fill out the form below.
