SUNDAY

September 20, 2009 - Volume 6, Issue 3

Welcome to FenCon VI

It's day three of FenCon and we've still got a heck of a lot going on today. We've got more concerts, more panels, more demos, more hands-on workshops, and the "Pitchforks and Torches" session where you get to tell us what you liked this year and what we could improve for next year. Be sure to stick around for Closing Ceremonies at 4pm for an interesting announcement.

Shop the FenConvenience Store

We've got the limited-edition Kurt Miller art print for the low price of $10. (And every penny of that $10 goes directly to Genesis Women's Shelter!) We've also got a very limited supply of charity prints from previous years. Plus we're having a super blowout on t-shirts from previous FenCons—just $5 each, while they last. We're just inside the dealer room, for your FenConvenience.

We have, at press time, just two FenCon VI totebags and precisely zero FenCon VI t-shirts in stock. The best way to guarantee that you get the shirt or tote you want is to buy your Friend of the Fen membership for 2010.

Thanks, Party People

Special thanks to all the groups who threw room parties at FenCon this year. Starfleet, you're welcome to party with us anytime. ApolloCon, we admire your endurance and can't wait to return the favor in Houston next year. Good luck to Texas in 2013 and congratulations to ReConStruction. And thanks to the House Party, ORAC, AggieCon, ConJour, ConDFW, and all of the folks that make nighttime the right time.

Video Delights

Have you checked out our video room in its new location? Now in the Maple Room, around the corner from Gaming, we've got special presentations of this year's Hugo winners plus Plan 9 From Outer Space to close out the weekend
